School Board & Administration

As I reflect on this school year, I am amazed by the Spirit, Pride and Honor that our students have shown, even in the toughest of situations. We've experienced many highs this school year, but we've also had challenges along the way. Through it all, the students of Burnet High School have proven that they have the grit and determination to stay the course. As Nelson Mandela once said, "Do not judge me by my successes, judge me by how many times I fell down and got back up again." If there is one thing I could say about this student body, it is that they do not lack the resilience to succeed. Every day I see the hard work of students paying off, taking them one step further toward their goals. Students have been encouraged to "Dream Big", to set their sights higher than their current circumstances. At Burnet High School this is exactly what students have done, and their Spirit, Pride, and Honor will take them there.

BAND

THE LIFEBLOOD OF MUSIC

<< The band marches onto the field at the UIL Area Marching Contest, ready to put on a jaw dropping performance.

^^ While standing at attention, the flutes wait for the beat from drum major Jordan Bevans in order to get into formation.

The Burnet High School Marching Band painted a rainbow of color with music through the performances of their 2018 marching show, "Keys of Color." The band met again for band camp in August where they started working hard to create and perfect their colorful show. The group made their debut at the USBands marching contest where they placed 2nd overall. Then came the UIL Region Marching Contest where the band earned their 28th 1st Division, which is the highest rating a band can receive. Next was the UIL Area Marching Contest where the band placed 4th overall and punched their ticket to the State Marching Contest. There, they placed 18th in the state of Texas, bringing an amazing ending to the marching season at the Alamodome. Even though marching season was over, the hard work continued. At the ATSSB All Region Band tryouts, 24 members made the band. The year came to end, but the hard work and dedication would begin again at the start of the next year.

ESPRIT DE CORPS

CAPTURING THE COLOR THROUGH MUSIC

<< The Highlandettes perform their feature dance before a halftime show, with Haley Ann Pattison, Lori Oliver, and Mariah Carlo leading the group through their routine.

^^ Autumn Snow and Teagen Tappe watch the drum majors for a signal to give the opening cymbal roll to start the show.

The EDC took us on a musical journey through the well-known piano themes of Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, Satie, and Mozart, beginning with basic black and white notes on a page, but through the keys, developing into a full palette of bright, contrasting colors and musical imagery. After months of practice and many obstacles, the EDC took on the USBands marching competition placing 3rd in preliminaries and winning outstanding general effect, percussion, and color guard placing 2nd overall in finals. The EDC then made a 1st division at UIL and started their journey to area. After placing 4th in finals, The Esprit de Corps was state bound and placed 18th in the state of Texas. After an amazing performance in the Alamo Dome the Esprit de Corps' season came to an end.

The 2018-2019 Burnet High School Highlandettes started the new school year by performing at football games and pep rallies, while also dedicating time to collaborate with the band and create the field show, titled "Keys of Color." The Dettes and the band formed the Espirit de Corps and placed 18th in the state of Texas for their field show performance. The Dettes visited Kilgore Rangerettes for a viewing of their show, a classic which captures the essence of a drill team. The Highlandettes attended a showing of the "World of Dance" performance at the H-E-B Center in Cedar Park. During basketball season, the Dettes competed at Danceline USA Contest and received the Medium Team Grand Champion Officer and Team awards. While officer camp was held during the summer, the theme "The Greatest Show" was chosen as a backdrop for the year's activities, based off of the movie "The Greatest Showman". This influenced their dances at their competition and Spring Show theme.

SETTING THE STAGE FOR THE STORY

<< Burnet One Act Play advances to Bi-District with their performance of, "Shipwrecked! An Entertainment, The Amazing Adventures Of Louis De Rougemont (As told by Himself)."

^^ Jonny Warner, portrayed by Aaron Arbaugh, sings along with Alex Holman (as Jake), Adonnis Alexander (as Josh), and Alan Silva (as Joey), while expressing their talents at Enrico Fermi High School in Zombie Prom The Musical.

This year the members of BETC were hard at work with their Fall Musical, "Zombie Prom." Which is a musical based on John Dempsey's fictional story of a teenage boy that is brought back to life by the love of his high-school sweetheart. The lead roles of Jonny and Toffee were played by Aaron Arbaugh and Annie Gordon. We also meet Miss Strict, the principal of Enrico Fermi High School, played by Danica Robertson and Eddie Flagrante played by Daniel Gutierrez. The musical was staged very quickly due to Director Mrs. Amanda Brandenburg's impending "special delivery".

One Act Play is a UIL event in which the cast and crew competed against other schools. Burnet's BETC players did not disappoint this year, advancing to Bi-District. This year's presentation was "Shipwrecked! An Entertainment, The Amazing Adventures of Louis De Rougemont (As Told By Himself)". Mrs. Brandenburg was very complementary of the players noting that several earned awards for their efforts, including Kylie Tullos (All-Star Tech Award) and Daniel Gutierrez (All-Star Cast).

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

LIVING TO RAISE OTHERS UP

<<Daniel Gutierrez and Sheaffer Teague show off their tennis skills at Rent-A-Senior, hoping to attract a high bidder to raise money for NHS.

^^Offering some sweet treats to entice the Rent-A-Senior bidders, Emerie Danson and Jazmine Castillo watch as the offers come rolling in, raising the amount of money to help fund NHS projects such as Adopt an Angel.

National Honor Society prides itself on promoting scholarship, leadership, service, and character. By meeting the criteria, students are inducted into the organization to help others in the community. In late November, NHS ran a photo booth at the Christmas Tree Lighting. Their next event, Adopt an Angel, provided families with Christmas presents for their children. Members used money raised for NHS to buy gifts, then wrapped and delivered them right to the doors of the recipients. In the spring, the organization held an Easter Egg Hunt at a local school. Members planted eggs around the playground and helped children hunt for Easter eggs. Later in the year, new members were inducted and honored at a special ceremony. The last event hosted by NHS was Rent-A-Senior, in which senior members were auctioned off to the crowd in hopes of gaining enough funds to help the NHS organization.

The Student Council at Burnet High School had a busy year as they set goals and carried out activities, while getting the student body involved in a variety of ways throughout the year. For Homecoming, Student Council provided ballots for students to vote for Homecoming Court and Queen and King. Also, STUCO aided in the themes for Homecoming Week. The next event organized by STUCO was Green Ribbon Week, which included information about drug and anti-bullying awareness. "Smash out Hate" was also an activity for students to smash pumpkins with hateful messages to remind students that this campus is an anti-bullying environment. In an effort to get students involved and provide an opportunity to "dress up" and attend a dance, STUCO organized the Winter Formal with the theme of "Casino Royale". In the spring semester, the "No Place for Hate" campaign lasted a week which included the annual cake-walk. The cake-walk allows students to have fun and earn sweets by participating with other students. Student Council ended the year with Coronation and by spreading SPH throughout the school for next year.

YEARBOOK

The 2019 Yearbook Staff got off to a great start by selecting "Life, Camera, Action" as the annual theme. Seniors Kelly Baker, Emerie Danson and Cheyanne Gray were named Senior Editors. Senior Nick Murphy, was named Organization and Events Editor, and Senior Jud Roy, was named Sports Editor. Kelly and Emerie worked very hard to bring the theme to life through page layouts and special colors. This year, Cheyanne Gray was the only fourth-year yearbook student. Cheyanne was instrumental in designing sports pages all four years and completed many pages. Nick Murphy and Junior Gage Janz added some special effects through backgrounds and creative graphics on the pages. Throughout the fall, the focus was on dispersing the 2018 yearbooks to students and begin the sales campaign for the current year's sales. Portrait pages and finalizing layouts took up the Spring semester as the yearbook staff finished another great publication.

The National FFA Organization is the largest youth organization in the nation, and the Burnet FFA Chapter is the largest student-led organization on this campus. The FFA is geared towards those interested in agriculture, whether it is speaking leadership abilities, or hands-on activities. The Burnet FFA Chapter kicked off their year with an officer-led welcome back supper last fall, shortly after they competed in LDE's and began preparing for CDE's, all while students were working with their livestock projects behind the scenes. The Burnet FFA was involved in many judging contests this year, with a number of teams earning State and National recognition. Our State Teams: Cotton Judging 16th, Plant ID 4th, Homesite 16th, ENR 6th, Dairy Cattle 11th, Wildlife 11th, Forage 13th and Range placing 2nd, making them a national qualifier. At the National Range Contest the Burnet FFA team came out at Reserve National Champions. In addition to our judging teams, 85 out of our Burnet FFA students participated in many livestock shows. The Burnet FFA chapter ended the year extremely successful and we are proud of our accomplishments.

What is FCCLA? It stands for Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America. This year's theme was "Come One, Come All" and the officers made a very creative "Big Top" bulletin board to invite new members to join to start off the year. During the Fall meetings, members planned for the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony, which involved all student organizations at BHS. Each group had a different station at the ceremony for participants to enjoy throughout the evening. There were several teams that competed in Corpus Christi at Regionals, including Parliamentary Procedures, Power of One, and Mystery Basket. The Power of One team made up of Dezzy Escamilla, Beatriz Hernandez and Alex Ellis competed in FCSA Tests and received recognition for their accomplishments. On Martin Luther King Day, several of the FCCLA members participated in a Community Service Day at the Little Texans Daycare Center where they cleaned and organized toys and others went to Pafford Place Assisted Living and played Bingo with residents. Overall, FCCLA had a very productive year, continuing to grow in both numbers and community involvement.

NAHS

ART IMITATING LIFE

The National Art Honor Society was very active this year from face painting for the VFW and police department, to a "Paint the Town" Plein Air competition in Marble Falls. Six of the submissions to the VASE competition resulted in 6 regional qualifiers for state. At Rodeo Austin Paige Adams won a sixth place scholarship and Anthony Poncik won a tenth place scholarship. Students competed for scholarships in a Patriotic Competition, and submitted pieces for The Congressional Art competition. The year ended with a banquet to celebrate the year's accomplishments as well as a senior gallery and silent auction.

SPEECH & DEBATE THROUGH THEIR LENS

Being a part of speech and debate events requires year long commitment and dedication. In June, the CX debate team began preparing for the upcoming season through debate camp and research. In January, Burnet swept the district tournament, and Jazlyn Marvin took top speaker. Alongside her first year partner, Clayton Atkison, they qualified for the state tournament and won district. Anna Barrios and Liam Franco took second at district and qualified for octofinals at the State Tournament. In poetry interpretation, Jazmine Castillo placed third at district and advanced to regionals.

INTERACT

TAKING ACTION TO IMPROVE LIVES

<< After sorting and boxing shoes that would be donated to Soles4Souls, Interact members pose proudly behind their hard work.

^^Interact members raise donations for Salvation Army's Christmas kettle drive.

Interact is an organization dedicated to serving the community. So dedicated that their first order of business was to receive the presidential citation earned during the previous year. This citation, seen in the group picture down below, certifies that the organization has met the high standards required for the special recognition. Every year, Interact collaborates with the Rotary club to help raise donations for Salvation Army. Students were stationed outside Bealls and at the school's Christmas Tree Lighting. People lined up to "donate for a donut" made by Mr. Ed, and participation was so high that the pastries rapidly ran out. On the campus-wide MLK Day of Service, Interact went to the Boys and Girls Club to clean up and organize the building. Interact members also ran the Soles4Souls shoe drive, collecting over 500 shoes! The organization finished out the year with the new officer election and new member induction.

HOSA - Future Health Professionals, formerly known as Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA), is the largest organization that prepares students that enter the healthcare field. HOSA members dedicated their time and efforts to help the community in many ways this year. The students hosted two successful blood drives with donations coming from every facet from the school. They also donated an abundance of toys to Dell Children's Hospital and delivered them to the hospital in person. HOSA also led a school wide canned food drive in the fall and all of the food was donated to LACare for Thanksgiving. Other highlights of the year include members Stephanie Lemus, Lillian McLeod and Samantha Robison's success at the state level of HOSA competitions in Clinical Nursing and Career Display, respectively. Mrs. Sharon Massey, HOSA advisor said "I want to thank all HOSA members for their dedication and most importantly following your heart and intuition. We competed at the State level in multiple events which we had not done previously. The time and determination put into these events throughout the year was amazing."

The 2018-2019 Bulldog team started the season with many young players. It took time for the players to get in sync with each other, with many players being tried out in different positions to find the best fit for the team. There were two seniors named team captain, Zach Ferguson and Zac Hudgins, along with Junior Blaine Burkhalter and Sophomore Jaxson Denton. Throughout the season, the team was plagued with injuries in key positions and the team had to adjust to these losses, moving some players up from JV to fill important roles. There were many close games during the season and the team never gave up working hard to improve overall as a team.

Hustling to Greatness

Looking for an opening, Running back Landon Christian sprints for the endzone.

The Freshman football team had a learning experience this season. They fought their hearts out at every practice at five in the morning to prepare for each game they played this season. Even though the boys encountered some losses, they still managed to keep their heads high. They did not do as well as they had hoped this season, but there was tremendous leadership on and off the field. According to Coach Sidney Parker, "The biggest highlight of this season is that they finished with a strong win. That is something that the players can take with them into off-season and use as motivation during their workouts to come back stronger next year."

They gave everything they had every time they stepped on the field." The JV team won three games in a row at one point in the season. They beat Manor New Tech 48-0. Coach Parker also stated, "The team played with energy, passion and desire in every game." As the team finished out the season, they had a lot to be proud of as they look forward to next year. In addition to our common goal of winning, the girls were just as dedicated to getting better in their individual skills. Each of them understood their abilities and worked hard day in and day out to improve themselves. "This has been one of the most fun groups that I have coached because of their understanding of the game as well as their willingness to be coached and held accountable. The 2019 Varsity baseball season was a very bumpy road with many ups and downs. This very young team, made up of three freshmen, three sophomores, five juniors, and one senior fought very hard all year. With a playoff berth coming down to the final district game these Bulldogs continued to fight. Although the outcome of the final game was not what we wanted, we are very proud of these young men. This group can be proud that they stuck it out through the hard times, and never quit. Although success in athletics is usually measured in wins and losses, we believe that this group of young men will learn and grow from the defeats that we had and help change the expectations, and the standard going forward.

Many of them also stepped up to help with the other teams as necessary throughout the year. Mother nature was not nice to the Bulldogs JV1 baseball team for most of the season. They did not get to play as many games as they needed. Regional Qualifiers

The boys 4x100, Cam Guenter, Trey Grant, Bradyn McPherson, and Jaxson Denton successfully advanced to the finals at regionals placing 4th in the region.

The Burnet Bulldogs track team started their season with invitational meets to warm up to the district competitions. Girls Track & Field

Showing a Lot of Heart on The Track

Regionals

The varsity girls 4x400, consisting of Macy Hollowell, Rylee Carroll, Kayla Gillaspie, and Phebe Musasa medaled 3rd in the region.

This season the Lady Dawg track program took big strides to improve themselves on a weekly basis. These young ladies were a fun group to watch compete, as they laid it all out on the track every meet. "This has been a great group of girls to be able to coach this season. They always showed up ready to work so they could improve themselves and win some medals and meets along the way!" said Head Coach Chelsea Sivells. There were nine girls who qualified in 13 events for the Area Meet. Seven girls ended up qualifying in eight events to the Regional Track Meet in Kingsville, TX. The mile relay team had the best finish of the season by earning a bronze medal and a spot on the awards stand.

Athletic Trainers

Life Behind The Scenes

Seniors

Momina Khawaja
Mikayla Whitus

Many people think athletic trainers are just there to give athletes water but there is so much more to their jobs behind the scenes. Athletic trainers have to be committed to the program because it requires many hours of hard work and dedication to accomplish their duties and responsibilities. This year, the athletic training program welcomed Coach Miranda Pollan as the new assistant trainer and a helping hand to Coach Angel Rios. The program continues to attract students interested in a medical field after high school, and many continue this program of study into college. "I found a home within Athletic Training. It helped me discover who I am", said senior Momina Khawaja
